

Academic Dermatology in a Big 12 City?!?! Opportunities to focus on MOHS, Dermatopathology, Pediatrics & other specialties in a growing clinic!

TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTER™
School of Medicine

The Department of Dermatology at Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center School of Medicine is expanding and has 2 great opportunities for Dermatologists in Lubbock, Texas.

Are you looking for great colleagues, great work/life balance, and great benefits? Join this team with longstanding staff, faculty that focuses on mentorship and strong community outreach. We offer a one stop dermatology experience where we can remove, review and treat all in the same location. Opportunities to work with Telemedicine, VA and TDCJ in addition to working with medical students and residents. To Apply: 25589BR

Are you Fellowship trained in MOHS? Interested in running a MOHS Fellowship? To Apply: 25514BR

Meet a TTUHSC Dermatology Faculty Member: Michelle Tarbox MD & Dermasphere (Co-Host of this podcast)

Academic rank will commensurate with academic experience, state benefits and more included.

To learn more about Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center and our great community in West Texas, see below!

The Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center

Welcome to the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center, where a dedication to education, patient care and research has made an impact on the health of West Texas and beyond for more than 50 years. We meet the health care needs of more than 2.75 million people who live throughout a vast 108-county stretching from the Texas Panhandle south to the Permian Basin and west into Eastern New Mexico.

We have established ourselves as a leader in education and patient care and are building a top-ranked research environment with significant studies under way in areas such as aging, cancer, reproduction, genetic diseases and rural health.

- The AAMC has ranked Texas Tech #1 in faculty satisfaction (Promotion & Tenure, Transparency, Women's satisfaction in the workplace)
- Top 10% in the U.S. for diversity
- TTUHSC Graduating Medical students are in the top 15%
- Clinical Research institute available to faculty-Biostatisticians, research nurses
- Collaboration with two local hospitals, each with a Children's Hospital

Build your legacy with us: TTUHSC-School of Medicine | Texas Tech Physicians Clinics

Our Impact Keeps Growing

TTUHSC educates students, provides patient care and conducts biomedical and clinical research. We graduate the most health care professionals in the state of Texas. Nationally recognized for innovative programs, academic achievement, and our cutting-edge research, we are training the next generation of highly qualified health professionals. To date we have trained more than 28,000 health care professionals who are serving patients and driving medical discovery in tangible, life-changing ways.

Independent since 1969

Like Texas itself, we are an independent and proud institution that is part of a larger union, the Texas Tech University System. As a university separate from Texas Tech University, we have been entrusted with a singular charge: to teach the next generation of doctors, nurses, pharmacists, researchers and health care professionals while simultaneously providing the people of West Texas with world-class patient care. We are both an institution of higher learning and a place where real people come for life-saving medical care.

About Lubbock, TX

Lubbock is a city in, and the county seat of, Lubbock County, Texas. The city is located in the northwestern part of the state. The Lubbock metro population is 318,679 with a catchment area of over 1.2 million.

Lubbock is a growing educational, commercial, medical and cultural center with a college-town atmosphere. The metropolitan population in excess of 300K residents of whom 30K+ are Texas Tech students, lives in mild seasonal conditions with an average of 267 days of sunshine per year. Lubbock residents enjoy an easy lifestyle with low housing costs, unique restaurants, bars and boutiques, and a drive of less than 25 minutes to anywhere in the city. Lubbock also has great public and private school systems and over 66 public parks, resulting in a very family- friendly atmosphere.

Known as the “Hub City” of West Texas, our diverse economy is based on manufacturing, agriculture, wholesale and retail trade services, as well as government, education and health care. Lubbock is the only city in the nation with a comprehensive university, a health sciences center, an agriculture college and a law school in one location, making Texas Tech University the second largest contiguous university campus in the United States.

Cost of Living

The cost of living in the Lubbock area is far below the national average. According to the Council for Community and Economic Research, Lubbock’s overall cost of living index is 89.4 percent. Lubbock ranked No. 61 out of 268 urban areas in the nation and No. 12 out of 30 urban areas in the state of Texas for lowest cost of living.

Culture & Attractions

The “Hub City” has long been recognized as a birthplace for original music, producing greats like Buddy Holly & The Crickets, Waylon Jennings, Mac Davis, Roy Orbison, Tanya Tucker and Natalie Maines of the Dixie Chicks. Today, Lubbock continues to launch some of the best musical talent and is home to a diverse music scene ranging from Classical and Country & Western to Bluegrass, Tejano and Rock ‘n’ Roll.

Helpful Sites

visitlubbock.org

lubbockintheLOOP.com

lubbockforkids.com

Contact Information

Contact: Julie Barclay

Phone: 806-743-2207

E-mail: Click here to e-mail.

* When making contact with the person who posted this opportunity, please tell them you saw their posting on PracticeMatch.
25589BR, 25514BR